

OUR Story, OUR Promise

For us, everything starts and ends with the land. We were incredibly blessed to raise our girls on this rugged, 110-acre ranch in Ashland, Oregon. Inspired by the high-elevation terrain, we planted the first grapes for our family vineyard in 2007. Soon after, Doug's sister and brother-in-law, Kelly and Duane Roberts, joined the adventure and Irvine & Roberts was born.

While we tend this land for only a moment in time, we understand that our stewardship impacts future generations. So we've made a promise to farm organically, plant regenerative crops and conjure a feast for pollinators, creating a nurturing ecosystem for the vineyards. Our commitment to L.I.V.E. and Salmon Safe certifications ensures this land will continue to thrive with healthy earth and clear water.

our Wines

Here, at our magical vineyards in Oregon's Rogue Valley, a team of exceptional craftspeople collaborate each day to create wines of elegance, style and balance in their flavors and textures. Fifty acres of Estate-grown Pinot Noir and Chardonnay roll alongside hills of Pinot Meunier and Gamay Noir. A lively Rosé of Pinot Noir and three distinct sparkling wines round out our offerings.

WINE WITH EVERYTHING

Few wine countries boast such an abundance of adventures close by. Crater Lake National Park, woodland trails to cascading falls, Class V rapids through primordial canyons, and bucket-list fly fishing on the famous Rogue River are all part of the unforgettable Southern Oregon experience. Ashland is a destination in and of itself, with eclectic boutiques and artist studios, growers markets, farm-to-table eateries, and year-round shows at the Oregon Cabaret Theatre and renowned Oregon Shakespeare Festival.

At Irvine & Roberts, when we're not making wine, we're out cycling, fishing, hiking, theater-going or picnicking in Lithia Park. Come make our patio your patio and we'll share our favorite adventures with you.

COME Visit US

Relaxing on our patio, guests tell us this place feels like home. A place to reflect on golden views and birdsong, to connect with special people, to drink in the elixir of sun, water and time. Fall and winter bring cozy fires and colorful farm boards to accompany your tasting. Spring promises blankets on the veranda, geese flocking home and fields of red clover amidst the budbreak. Whatever the season, we welcome you to savor our exceptional wines alongside Oregon's delicious bounty.
